BLACK HISTORY MONTH

from an article published in the National Catholic Reporter, March 13, 1998

In 1989 Franciscan Sr. Thea Bowman, then in the advanced stages of bone cancer, addressed a meeting of the National Conference of Catholic bishops from her wheelchair. “What the church’s people need to do is walk together,” she said. “If we as a church walk together don’t let nobody separate you. The church is a family ... and the family got to stay together.”

She then asked the bishops to rise and sing “We Shall Overcome” and to cross their arms and join hands. “You got to move together to do that,” she said. “See, in the old days you had to tighten to do that so that when ... the tear gas would come, when the dogs would come, when the horses would come ... brothers and sisters would not be separated.”

And so the black-suited, pectoral cross-wearing assembly bunched up together and, some even swaying, sang forth with unusual gusto the words of the civil rights anthem.

STATIONS OF THE CROSS

Beginning Friday, February 23, 2018, we will pray the Stations of the Cross in the church at 7:00 pm. Come join us.
