A NOTE FROM BROTHER MICK

"...I have left a little light for you so you will know that someone cares... Just where it becomes the most dark and difficult to find your way, there is the light left for you. And when your way becomes lighter, please go back to that darkest place where you have been, and set the little light there to give heart to the next trembling soul that braces the path through the dark..."

- Mikki Brain

Dear Holy Spirit Church Family,

The Lord give you peace.

Thank you for being a 'little light' at the time of my Mother and sister-in-law's passing. Your thoughts, prayerful support and many gestures of kindness were greatly appreciated. Your presence to me and to my family in any way during our darkest hours will not, I assure you, be forgotten.

In the words of St. Paul to the Philippians (1:3), "I give thanks to my God every time I think of you - which is constantly."

In God's love and mine,
Brother Mick
