CAPUCHIN NEWS

Fr. Roger Massawe, OFM Cap, who has been the rector of Saint Paul Shrine on Euclid Avenue these past four years, has returned to his home province in Tanzania. Because Fr. Roger will not be immediately replaced by another priest-friar to take care of the pastoral needs of the shrine, Fr. David and Fr. Bob (from Saint Agnes - Our Lady of Family Parish) will be covering the Noon Mass and helping with daily confessions at the Shrine Monday through Saturday. The friars at Borromeo Seminary will cover the Sunday Mass there. The expectation is that a more permanent arrangement will be in place sometime this summer. Please be patient as we adjust to these new responsibilities.

Br. Akolla Etuge, OFM Cap is still in Cameroon and is expected to return to Cleveland by the end of this month.

CLEANING-UP AFTER CEILING REPAIRS

Can you spare a couple of hours next Saturday?

The work is complete in the church to repair water damage from leaky roofs. Plaster and paint work is done in six different areas of the church. If the scaffolding is still in the choir loft when you read these words, it will soon be removed.

The church needs a good, thorough cleaning following all this work; there is a thin layer of plaster dust throughout the church. The Holy Spirit Marthas could use a few extra hands to help with the work on Saturday at 10:00 am. If you can spare a little time, your help will be greatly appreciated. If you can also bring a small bucket and some cleaning rags, that will be helpful.

We want to make sure our church is in great shape for the Revival!
