ALL ARE WELCOME TO COME AND WORSHIP WITH US

Holy Spirit Parish Mission Statement

We come together as a diverse and welcoming community to glorify, praise, and give thanks to God in Christ Jesus. Inspired by God's Word and the Eucharist, we go forth to serve the needs of our parish and the extended community.

We are called through the Holy Spirit to spread the Gospel message and reach out to the poor and oppressed. We are committed to know, understand, and love each other as members of Christ's body.

MY HEART IS FULL OF GRATITUDE

Since my car accident on Mother's Day weekend, the outpouring of prayers and support has been overwhelming. I truly feel sustained by your love and care. I tried hard to keep a record of all the gifts of food, meals, get well cards, prayerful wishes and so much more so as to send a written thank you to everyone. I'm sure I must have missed at least a few; if I missed thanking you, please accept this note as my heartfelt expression of gratitude for everything you have done to support me during these seven weeks.

My bad news is that my elbow surgery has to be redone. It's just one of those things that sometimes happens, the surgeon says. He's upset and I'm frustrated and disappointed. This Wednesday I'll be in surgery again. I expect to be discharged the same day. Br. Mick will be here to celebrate the evening Mass. In the meantime, please keep me in your prayers as you are always in mine. May God bless you all abundantly.

J. David

We are seeking additional hospitality ministers to serve at wakes and funerals at our parish. There is also an occasional need for a reader at a funeral. This is a unique way to serve our brothers and sisters when they come to church to bury someone they love. Thus those who serve well as deacons gain good standing and much confidence in their faith in Christ Jesus.

— 1Timothy 3: 13

Deacon Shelby is certainly among those who have served this parish community well and faithfully. As he comes today to the official ending of his diocesan assignment to serve this portion of the church in Cleveland, we must acknowledge that truth.

It's impossible to count how many meals Deacon Shelby has prepared over the years. How many eggs fried, sausages and grits prepared for PSR and other breakfast meetings? How many turkeys do you think he baked? How many pounds of corned beef? ...all the while keeping an energetic, upbeat and fun atmosphere in kitchens that were way too hot.

He prepared his homilies carefully and always delivered them from a heart full of passion for the Lord Jesus and with a homelike quality that made us feel like we could respond. I wonder how many pastors he oriented and trained? I am forever grateful for the help and support he gives me in that regard.

Deacon Shelby never hesitated to visit a brother or sister in the hospital or at home. He shared the Eucharist and news of the parish. His gentle manner and full-throated laugh endeared many and reminded them that they remain a part of our family.

We have not seen the last of Deacon Shelby, you can be sure. It's just that after 26 years of serving at the Lord's table (and the kitchen tables around here) he now has the freedom to choose which tasks he feels up to and can do from time to time according to his standards of high quality.

No, we have not seen the last of him. But this small transition for him is an excellent time to express our gratitude and affection. Over the weeks and months we will continue to take advantage of ways to say thank you.

Thank you, Deacon Shelby! And thank you, Lord Jesus, for such a dear gift from you whom we treasure with all our hearts.

J. David

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

There are many ways people can work to influence systems and organizations that promote racist policies. Here are two ideas that all of us may agree upon to help affect change.

To help assure that fervent prayers and beautiful speeches go on to become action on behalf of justice, equity, and true peace, everyone is urged to:

1. Register to vote, and then vote in national and local elections this November. To register, go to: <https://olvr.ohiosos.gov> or scan the QR code to the right.

2. Complete a 2020 census form. Census data determines the amount of federal programs and funding will be available in local communities for the next ten (10) years. The census form is available at: <https://2020census.gov> or scan the QR code to the left.
