Mission Statement

We come together as a diverse and welcoming community to glorify, praise, and give thanks to God in Christ Jesus. Inspired by God's Word and the Eucharist, we go forth to serve the needs of our parish and the extended community.

We are called through the Holy Spirit to spread the Gospel message and reach out to the poor and oppressed. We are committed to know, understand, and love each other as members of Christ's body.

COME, WORSHIP WITH US

ON THE USE OF THE COMMUNION CUP

It came quite unexpectedly a little more than a week ago. Bishop Malesic has lifted the restriction on the use of the communion cup in church, effective immediately.

But we're not immediately ready to reinstate it here. There are too many considerations that have to be accounted for. Among them are:

- ◆ warnings of a particularly harsh and long flu season this year, the lingering presence of an ever-mutating coronavirus, and another kind of respiratory infection to which children seem particularly susceptible;
- ◆ we will need some more of our eucharistic ministers to step forward to serve again because it will take more ministers to offer communion under both forms;
- ◆ it may be opportune to refresh ourselves about church belief and teaching on the Eucharist and the mechanics of receiving communion.

Even if we started offering the communion cup again, it has always been true that no one is obliged to drink from the cup. We receive the fullness of the glorified, risen Jesus when we receive communion under the form of bread or wine alone. Offering communion under both forms allows church participants to engage in the fullness of the symbol that Jesus left us as his perpetual memorial.

If public health seems relatively stable, maybe we can look forward to our Christmas Masses as a first offering for the communion cup. Let me know what you think. There will certainly be more to come.

THE SIGN OF PEACE

Have you noticed that many people are embracing, offering a handshake, or bumping fists and forearms when they meet each other entering church? If you are inclined to, and the other person is willing, feel free to offer a traditional embrace, handshake, fist or forearm bump at the sign of peace during Mass. But, please respect the reluctance of another who wants to be more cautious than you.

HOLY SPIRITEENS

All Holy Spirit teenagers and their parents are having a meeting next Sunday, the 13th, after the 10:30 Mass in the parish center. Refreshments will be served. Whether or not you've participated in Spiriteen activities and outings in the past doesn't matter. If you're a teen, you're invited to this short meeting and conversation – and bring one or both of your parents with you.

The conversation will be about discussing and refining a plan for the group covering the next several months, including a movie event and other opportunities. You don't have to register in order to come next Sunday; just show up.

MESSAGES ON FACEBOOK

Keep an eye on our Facebook page for particular messages from parishioners that are addressed to our entire community. At this time, we're hoping to gather photographs of parish life over these fifteen years to celebrate and promote our plans to mark our parish anniversary in January. Please page through the photographs you may have on your computer or telephone and share them at our Facebook page.

You can submit your posts directly to our Facebook managers by writing to:

Let's have fun with this media and build a space that reflects the love and kindness that our parish members have for each other.

LADIES OF PETER CLAVER GRAB N' GO LUNCHES

The Peter Claver Ladies Auxiliary is having a fundraiser, "Soup for the Soul" after the 10:30 am Mass next Sunday. It will be a grab and go meal consisting of a bowl of homemade soup, a roll, a dessert, and a beverage. The cost is $6.00, and pre-orders are being taken after Mass.

GOING ON RETREAT

After Masses this weekend, Father David is taking a private, silent retreat for a week. He will return on Sunday afternoon, November 13th. Brother John Paul Kuzma and Brother Mick Joyce will preside at the Sunday Masses on the 12th and 13th.

Brother David Domanski, one of the friars in residence at Saint Paul Friary only since August, will preside at the Wednesday evening Mass on the 9th. There will be no confessions on the schedule that day.

As he always does, Father David will be holding all our parishioners and community in his prayer in a special way during these days; and he asks that you do the same for him.

BLESSING OF FOOD FOR THANKSGIVING DAY

The 6:30 pm Wednesday evening Mass on November 23rd is our parish's celebration of Thanksgiving Day. Every family is invited to bring some of the food for your meal with you to Mass. After the homily and intercessions, there will be a special blessing of thanksgiving over our families and the food we will prepare the next day.

Then, when we sit down at our tables to feast in gratitude for God's blessings, know that many others in our parish family have opened their hearts and their tables to the same blessings from God's hand. God is good. All the time.

Bring with you the food you will prepare and join us in grateful prayer!

NOVEMBER

2023 MISSALS AVAILABLE

The new missals have arrived. Beyond what we need to have a supply in the pews, we ordered 50 additional books for those among us who like to have a personal copy for their home use. Those copies are available in the sacristy. Because the cost has risen by $2.00, we're asking those who want to purchase their own copy to add $1.00 to their cost and pay $6.00 this year.

When you see the book, you may be surprised at how thin it is. It's all still there. It turns out that Liturgical Press is using a very thin paper in this year's edition. Even so, our costs have increased.

PSR class meets right after the 10:30 Mass this weekend. Please make your way to the parish center as soon as you can immediately after Mass.

Borromeo Seminary's annual Novemberfest Italian Dinner is on Saturday, November 12th. See the flyer on the bulletin boards for details.
