

WORLD DAY
OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

GOOD SHEPHERD SUNDAY

It is decisive that we Christians cultivate a gaze full of hope and work fruitfully in response to the vocation we have received, in service to God's kingdom of love, justice and peace. This hope – Saint Paul tells us – “does not disappoint” (Rom 5:5), since it is born of the Lord's promise that he will remain always with us and include us in the work of redemption that he wants to accomplish in the heart of each individual and in the “heart” of all creation.

HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear Holy Spirit Family!

When we speak about vocations in the Church we refer to the specific call that God has for each one of us. Our first vocation is to always love God with our whole heart, mind, and soul. Then, we are called to share the love we have for God with all those He has placed in our lives. If we live this first vocation well, we will be well prepared for living out the secondary vocation God calls us to. We can be called to marriage, to be single, to priesthood, or consecrated religious sisterhood or brotherhood. Each one of these vocations is an opportunity to serve God's people and lead them into His love for them. If we are seeking to know what that secondary vocation God is calling us to is, we need to spend time in prayer as well as taking small steps to help discern that call. Finding a spiritual director or mentor in your life can help you reflect on what God is calling you to. If we have already discovered and are living our vocation, it is important to be open to renewal and guidance to help you stay committed to growing in holiness within that vocation. Take time today to ask the Holy Spirit to help you live that first vocation well and either guide you to your secondary vocation or to strengthen your commitment to it!

to help you live that either guide you to your or to strengthen your -Fr Dave
