

THE SACRAMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

The whole liturgical life of the Church revolves around the Eucharistic sacrifice and the sacraments. CCC (Catechism of the Catholic Church) 1113

The sacraments are efficacious signs of grace, instituted by Christ and entrusted to the Church, by which divine life is dispensed to us. (CCC 1131)

The Church celebrates the sacraments as a priestly community structured by the baptismal priesthood and the priesthood of ordained ministers. (CCC 1132)

The Holy Spirit prepares the faithful for the sacraments by the Word of God and the faith which welcomes that word in well-disposed hearts. Thus the sacraments strengthen faith and express it. (CCC 1133)

The fruit of sacramental life is both personal and ecclesial. For every one of the faithful on the one hand, this fruit is life for God in Christ Jesus; for the Church, on the other, it is an increase in charity and in her mission of witness. (CCC 1134)

HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear Holy Spirit Family, This week we enter in to two very special sacramental celebrations! Ed Linsky, along with five other men from our Diocese, have been called by God and ordained for ministry in God's Church through the Sacrament of Holy Orders. By the Bishop's laying of hands on the deacons, they were marked with a spiritual imprint that cannot be removed and configures them to Christ, the servant of all! Our catechism states: it is the task of deacons to assist the bishop and priests in the celebration of the divine mysteries, above all the Eucharist, in the distribution of Holy Communion, in assisting at and blessing marriages, in the proclamation of the Gospel and preaching, in presiding over funerals, and in dedicating themselves to the various ministries of charity. (CCC 1570). The other very special sacrament we celebrate this Wednesday is the full initiation into our Church that four of our teens will receive in the Sacrament of Confirmation. By this sacrament they will be more perfectly bound to the Church and enriched with a special strength of the Holy Spirit for the rest of their lives! Let us rejoice and be glad that God has given us these powerful sacraments to go forth and bear good fruit in our world!
