HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Holy Spirit Family,

The scripture readings for these summer Sundays of Ordinary Time are filled with the parable teachings of Jesus. Last week, Jesus used the imagery of a friend asking another friend for help that was not in the mood to help him. Jesus assured that with perseverance in asking, the help would come. So also goes our life of prayer to Our Father in Heaven. Perseverance in prayer bears the gift of the Holy Spirit in our lives...the greatest gift that God desires to give us. This week, Jesus again speaks about what needs to be the primary pursuit of our lives. If we store up treasures on earth, they will only fade and leave us empty in the end. Rather, He teaches, store up the treasures of Heaven so that we can forever experience the greatest riches possible with God and each other. Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also (Matthew 6:21). Let us treasure our faith and trust in God so that our hearts overflow with His Mercy and Love today!

Fr. David Domanski OFM CAP.
