

*Our soul waits for the LORD,
He is our help and shield.
For in Him our hearts rejoice;
in His holy name we trust.
May your mercy, LORD,
be upon us;
as we put our hope in You.*

HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Holy Spirit Family,

In my adendum to last week's homily, I added a message that has been quietly calling to me in recent weeks. It is easy to caught up in thinking about all "I" need to do in my life. All that "I" feel responsible for, behind on, or unequipped to carry out. A focus on self-sufficiency is easy to slip into. It will lead us only to discouragement and frustration and is ultimately a sin against God. Who am I making into a god when I think in this way? Rather, the antidote, is to come back to the truth that God is the One who gives us all we have, sustains all that we are, and who has the best plan for our lives and the lives of those around us. The better way to think is to say "Lord, what are YOU going to do through me today!" How can I, with the personality and abilities YOU have given me, be an instrument of YOUR plan and YOUR LOVE today! Jesus tells us in the Gospel this Sunday where your treasure is, there also will your heart be (Luke 12:34). Let us hold in our hearts the greatest treasure we can ever have, the Spirit of the Living God within us and around us, and trust all our cares to Him!

Fr. David Hernandez OFM CAP.
