HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Holy Spirit Family,

Today we begin Black History Month in which we honor and recognize the contributions of so many who have worked to help advance human society and bring about racial equality. Many in our own parish community have been involved in these advancements within our country. For their creative and courageous efforts we are extremely grateful. Let us hold on to hope, grounded in God's loving plan for us, as we continue to be instruments of His instruments of peace and justice.

The National Day of Prayer for the African American and African Family (NDPAAAF), Sunday, February 1, 2026. The National Day of Prayer for the African American and African Family, observed on Sunday, February 1, 2026, is a special occasion for reflection and unity. This year, the National Black Catholic Congress has enriched the celebration with an updated Prayer Booklet, featuring a beautiful reflection by Dr. Ansel Augustine from the USCCB's Office of African American Affairs for the Secretariat of Cultural Diversity in the Church. For those seeking ways to commemorate this meaningful day, a resource guide is included in this weeks bulletin, offering a variety of activities that families, parishes, and communities can enjoy doing
