HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Dear Holy Spirit Family,

This weekend we will have the first of three scrutinies for our newly elect preparing to be fully initiated in the Church this Easter. The English word "scrutiny" derives from the Latin scrutinium, which itself stems from the verb scrutari, meaning "to search," "to investigate," or "to examine closely. Scrutinies in the Catholic Church are formal examinations or inquiries designed to assess the suitability, faith, morals, and readiness of individuals for key sacramental or vocational steps. (Magisterium.com)

We will offer our elect prayers of support and spiritual strength inspired by different Gospel stories of Jesus' healing power. Three principal scrutinies occur on the Third (Samaritan Woman, John 4), Fourth (Man Born Blind, John 9), and Fifth (Lazarus, John 11) Sundays of Lent. We are blessed to have this time of growth for our entire community! Let us continue our Lenten journey in prayer for each other and for our loved ones, especially those most in need at this time. Peace of the Lord be with us and throughout the whole world!

To David Norman OFM CAP.

Thank you for your generous support of this valuable ministry that is helping so many!
