HOLY SPIRIT CATHOLIC CHURCH

Sisters and Brothers of Holy Spirit Church,
 In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus tells the Apostles "Fear no one." This is a bold command that Jesus gives because He knows that to follow Him will require a bold commitment in the face of suffering, persecution, and resistance against God's message of mercy and love poured out for all. We live in a world, as the Apostles did, that can fall into self-centered pursuits of power and influence at the expense of human lives and their well being. When sin captures our hearts we can disregard God and act out of fear of losing the false security we find in power and control over others. When Jesus says fear no one, He is saying do not seek your security in demanding others to conform to your will and your way. If we do this we will constantly live in fear because we will never find peace in this approach to life. The only way we will find peace is by humbly trusting all of our life into God's hands. To "fear" God alone is to have awe in His presence. To know that He is the One who has all power, all knowledge, for all time and everywhere that is. When we "fear" God alone, who is GOOD, LOVING, and MERCIFUL ALL THE TIME, we can truly find HIS PEACE and bring that to the ends of the earth!

To David Nomand OFM CAP.

St Joseph and Fatherhood

From Redemptoris Custos by Saint Pope John Paul II:

(The) bond of charity was the core of the Holy Family's life, first in the poverty of Bethlehem, then in their exile in Egypt, and later in the house of Nazareth. The Church deeply venerates this Family, and proposes it as the model of all families. Inserted directly in the mystery of the Incarnation, the Family of Nazareth has its own special mystery. And in this mystery, as in the Incarnation, one finds a true fatherhood: the human form of the family of the Son of God, a true human family, formed by the divine mystery. In this family, Joseph is the father: his fatherhood is not one that derives from begetting offspring; but neither is it an "apparent" or merely "substitute" fatherhood. Rather, it is one that fully shares in authentic human fatherhood and the mission of a father in the family. This is a consequence of the hypostatic union: humanity taken up into the unity of the Divine Person of the Word-Son, Jesus Christ. Together with human nature, all that is human, and especially the family - as the first dimension of man's existence in the world - is also taken up in Christ. Within this context, Joseph's human fatherhood was also "taken up" in the mystery of Christ's Incarnation. On the basis of this principle, the words which Mary spoke to the twelve-year-old Jesus in the Temple take on their full significance: "Your father and I...have been looking for you." This is no conventional phrase: Mary's words to Jesus show the complete reality of the Incarnation present in the mystery of the Family of Nazareth. From the beginning, Joseph accepted with the "obedience of faith" his human fatherhood over Jesus. And thus, following the light of the Holy Spirit who gives himself to human beings through faith, he certainly came to discover ever more fully the indescribable gift that was his human fatherhood.

A Prayer For Fathers
*Heavenly Father,
 you entrusted your Son Jesus,
 the child of Mary,
 to the care of Joseph, an earthly father.
 Bless all fathers
 as they care for their families.
 Give them strength and wisdom,
 tenderness and patience;
 support them in the work they have to do,
 protecting those who look to them,
 as we look to you for love and salvation,
 through Jesus Christ
 our rock and defender.
 Amen.*

SEEKING BEREAVEMENT VOLUNTEERS

The Bereavement Ministry is seeking volunteers for anyone able to share the gift of your time and compassion with those who are grieving the loss of a loved one. We are specifically looking for a volunteer to maintain the supply of our grief support "CareNote" pamphlets and the other free grief support materials displayed in the northeast corner of the church. We also can use more ushers/lectors for weekday and weekend Funeral Masses, volunteers to research and share pre-planning resources, maintaining the census of our deceased and their family contacts, and assisting with the annual All Souls Mass. If you are able to help in any areas in this ministry, please contact Rhonda at 216-396-4136.

GRIEF SUPPORT

Anyone interested in participating in a Grief Support group either at our parish or in conjunction with St. Agnes/Our Lady of Fatima, please contact Rhonda at 216-396-4136. Please advise the days (of the week) and times you are available. I am also able to train you, if you are interested in becoming a Grief Support Leader.
